Jon was a good friend and a very good man. We met in high school biology class and did a lot of growing up and fun stuff back then. A good desert party, backpacking trips, concerts (including The WHO, The Boss, Kinks and many more). He made a piont of calling us on our anniversary every year, my wife was in that same biology class, believe it or not, and was also a good friend of Jon. Jon and I came very close to what would have likely been a fatal car accident almost 30 years ago and I don't know if he ever shared that with anyone or not. So in some ways these were bonus years. Seeing Joy and meeting his children yesterday made me realize what a wonderful bonus it has been. If you want to do something in memory of Jon I would say be happy and be nice. We will always remember you with a smile. See you down the road Jon.

We don't know what to say. It was such a shock to hear as Jon was always smiling and so full of life. Joy, Eli, Ariella and Hannah - you are in our thoughts and prayers. - Elyse, Steven, Sammi and Hannah

Having grown up with Liz since kindergarten, all her big brothers were a novelty to me. Jon was closest to our age and around more. However, most of the time in his room blaring his crazy music and downing concert/band t-shirts. Memories that make me smile. So sorry God decided to have you leave before your family was ready to say good bye. Praying for you all, Joy.
