Victoria Plasencio Lopez

OCT 12, 1929 - AUG 16, 2013

Victoria (Vickie) Plasencio Lopez 83 passed away peacefully surrounded by her loved ones on August 16, 2013. Vickie is survived by her loving husband of 60 years Robert; her children; David; Kathy (Rudy) Ellie (Lauro) Sandy (Roland) Mindi (Mike) Karen (Ron) Jeremy; Sister Phyllis (Tony) along with numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren whom she dearly adored. She will always be remembered for her genuine heart, and her witty sense of humor. Vickie was a natural born leader, served as Vice President of the VFW post DAV Women's Auxiliary and Girl Scout Leader. She also devoted her time volunteering for the Tucson Association for the Blind. Her many interests included traveling by car enjoying the Arizona scenic views, playing bingo, and was also an avid fan of boxing and never missed a paid preview ensuring family joined in to watch this special event. Thank you mother for the perfect life you have given us. Memorial services will be held on Thursday August 22, 2013 at 11:00 A.M. at Evergreen Mortuary Chapel 3015 N. Oracle Rd.
