Laurance G. Stickney

MAY 22, 1944 - JUN 18, 2012

STICKNEY, LAURANCE G. Died June 18, 2012 of lung cancer, age 68. He was born and raised in Newburyport, MA, and has lived in Tucson for the past 32 years. Larry was a generous man who always put the needs of family and others first, often going without himself and sometimes working three jobs at a time. A kind and gentle giant of a man, he was always ready with a joke and saw humor in everything. Larry had been employed in Tucson by Manville-Schuller; Catalina Foothills High School, and most recently Raytheon. Preceded in death in 1990 by beloved wife, Cheryl. Survived by loving wife of 19 years, Felicia Stickney, Tucson; sister, Beverly Baker, Catalina, AZ; daughters Luran (Jim) Brayden, North Reading, MA; Lisa Stickney (Shaun Huddleston), Tucson; Heidi (Jeff) Brown, Catalina, AZ; five granddaughters; one grandson; stepsons Greg Mercer, Tucson, and Ken Mercer, Stockton, CA. Memorial contributions may be made to Casa de la Luz or to the American Cancer Society. Arrangements by EVERGREEN MORTUARY.

May these words recorded at Isaiah 25:8 be of much comfort to you and your family during this time of deep sorrow. "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken |it|.💎

Felicia, I am so very sorry to hear about Larry. We had just talked about grooming the girls and expected much more time. I will always remember Larry's quick wit. He is truly a man I will miss. My prayers are with you. If you need anything, please call.
