Mundele B. Mulato

AUG 14, 1983 - MAR 12, 2012

Mundele "Great Man Dele' D" Bayeta Mulato was born on August 14, 1983, in Tucson, Arizona, died March 12, 2012 at 28 years old. In Tucson, Mundele attended Davidson Elementary School, Doolen Middle School, and Catalina High School. While in Michigan, he attended Huron High School. As a child, he was an avid athlete and loved to play soccer. One of his athletic accomplishments was to be selected to play soccer in the USA Junior Olympics. As he grew older, Mundele became a fan of rap music, composing his own music and started his own music production company, Cousins in Action Black Diamond Inc. (CIABD). Among friends and family, he was known as a loving and caring person who always put others before himself. Mundele had a supernatural love for his Mom, children and animals. Mundele is survived by his mother Gilbertine Mulato; father Matu Mulato; sisters Bitaya and Makaya Mulato; brothers Thierry Batalonga and Roch Batalonga. On his mother's side he leaves aunts Honorine Mombele, Marie-Noel Mombele, Henriette Mombele, and uncle Djo Mombele. On his father's side, he leaves aunts Vejana Mulato, Luisa Mulato, Fatima Mulato, Vicky Mulato; uncles Garcia Mulato, Monteiro Mulato, Ernesto J. Mulato, Joao Mulato, and Pinto Mulato. He leaves behind many beloved cousins such as Dr. Makaya Bisanga Mulato, Pauline Ekoko Mboya, and Manuel Mulato. Mundele leaves behind beloved family friends Debra "Mah" Richards, Loretta Gastelum, Spencer Johnson, Stacy Richards, Hope Richards, Justin Richards, Kelly Charles, Tyana Felix and Danielle, a god-daughter, Elizabeth Apolinar, his friends and many fans.

My best friend all through junior high. The most all around talented individual I've ever still met to this day. We actually fist fought in front of Catalina one day in front of about 100 people. He beat the heck out of me lol the best fight I've ever been in. Then we were still cool and did time in Douglas together. it's September somethin 2025 LongLive 'Dele Dog.

We are sorry to hear of your loss. Mundele was a great young man who shared many soccer and "rap" memories with our son, Damion in their teenage years. We have great memories of his quiet, yet loving demeanor. May you find peace in knowing that you will always have an angel watching you from above. Faye & Donald Matthews
