Uncle Norman will surely be missed. He was a very whitty guy. Always full of piss and vinegar, even to the end. We worked together for many years at Leo's so we had a lot of good times. the funniest was when he made his dad my grandpa mad and he chased him around the store with a broom. Grandma Lucy always stepped in to save his butt. He was a very social guy and loved his family very much. We are glad he returned to Tucson to spend his final years with us.
