Lillian was our dear friend, and will live forever in our memories. A few years ago, she conducted our wedding ceremony in her own home, and after that took great delight when we went out to lunch in telling wait staff, "I married these two!" My wife is artist Sherry Bryant, and we met Lillian at my wife's one-woman art show at the Botanical Gardens in 2007. Lillian arrived a few minutes before the show began, pointed at Sherry's watercolor painting of a coyote and declared, "I want that one." Lillian was always encouraging, loving and fun to be with. We miss her. Our condolences to her family.
