Linda was one of my best friends. I was with her the last two years of her life to help her with her cancer and I not only helped her but she helped me in so many ways. She was one of the funniest people I knew and she loved her kids more than anything. She just had a way about her that just made you love her. She gave that cancer ever piece of fight in her and eventually there was no fight left. I love you Linda and I will miss you. Love Nancy
