Charlene Miller-Lewis

SEP 8, 1954 - OCT 22, 2015

To my loving mother,
Thank you for your love and support throughout the years. I appreciate all that you sacrificed to help me become the man you knew I could always be. I promise to honor your legacy by continuing the work that was started many years ago. From son to mom, I love you with all my heart, Adrian

Mom, words cannot begin to express how blessed I am to have you as a mother. Every moment that we shared together will always be something that I'll remember. Thank you for always believing in me, your endless words of encouragement, and teaching me life lessons. I will always be grateful for your unconditional love. At times when it felt like the world was against me I always knew I had comfort with you which was just an arms length away. But the one thing I will forever be grateful for is that you gave me life. God bless you Mom and forever be at peace, you will never be forgotten and you will always be by my side. We love you always, Aubrey L. Lewis
