Susan Grimes sent a virtual gift in honor of Arthur.

Art was my first love. I just recently found him on Facebook. We shared many conversations over the last few months. He was glad to hear from me. In fact, he asked me about continuing with his chemo. We seemed to share the same philosophy. I am greatly saddened by his passing. I discovered that I still loved him deeply. My heart goes out to all that loved him. But he is not lost to us. As long as we can hear his laughter, he will be with us. He will live in my heart forever!
