Betty Mae Braun

MAY 13, 1926 - MAR 28, 2016

Betty Mae Braun, 89 of Tucson, died Monday, March 28, 2016. Preceded in death by her beloved husband John in 1991, she is survived by her sister Shirley (Leo) McDaniel of Oregon; nieces Karen Hiller of Oregon; Kim Loukes, of Washington State; and Dr. Lisa McDaniel of Michigan, also survived by nephew James (Kate) Mueller of St. David, AZ. Betty had been a member of Virgil Whyte's Musical Sweethearts All Girl Review from 1943 until 1946. The band went on the USO Tour Circuit, where they were invited to tour all over the United States and traveled to over 600 Navy, Marine, Army and Air Force bases and also entertained troops on the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Ranger. When the band disbanded, Betty moved back to her hometown of Racine. A reunion of the band was held several years ago and the band memorabilia is on display at the National Archives in Washington, D.C.. Betty was a member of the professional woman's singing group "Desert Tones" and a member of Beta Sigma Sorority. Of the many things Betty has enjoyed in the world, most of all, she dearly loved wildlife. At the request of the family a private service was held at Evergreen Mortuary and Cemetery.

I love to write and Betty loved reading my thoughts on paper. This morning, I wrote this for Betty: Betty Braun Passed March 28, 2016 She was once a girl, then a wife, but a pianist was revealed Retired then to follow the maize to continue with what was to be She felt comfort within her gentle soul. She lit up the room with her smile She reminisced of days of old And the music that hummed for a while Sometimes smiles; some with tears But time marches into years Jazzy came to fill her days and stay with her for a while A gift indeed; this single cat, to guide her thru in style. Her days were counted, each day a gift, until they all were gone We miss her now; her voice is silent but we'll always remember her song Rochelle Puczkowskyj April 1, 2016
