They say cousin's are your first best friends and that's true of my mother and Tracy. A lot of my childhood was spent hanging out with Tracy and her father's side of the family (my grandmas brother) she was a strong very loving woman and her battle with cancer just proves how strong she was but her body just wasn't as strong as her will to stay with loved ones. You will be greatly missed and the love and memories will stay cherished in our heart's. Rip. Love you cousin.
