Juanita Penn

MAY 19, 1923 - JUL 15, 2016

Juanita Penn, 93, died July 15, 2016, at the Loving Heart Care Home in Tucson, Arizona, with friends and family by her side.

Juanita was born May 19, 1923 in Bristow, Oklahoma to Maude and Abe Adolph Whitecotton. She moved from El Segundo, California with her husband, Lyle Wesley Penn, to Tucson, Arizona in 1956.

Juanita's interests included family, friends, painting, sewing, mall walking, water aerobics, reading and travelling. She was a member of the Cactus Wrens, University of Arizona Home Extension Service, for over 40 years serving Tucson residents with informative and educational programs. She devoted much of her time and energy as a caregiver to her husband, Lyle W. Penn, until he passed away at age 72. Juanita is remembered for her sense of humour and kindness.

Juanita Penn is survived by her two daughters, Beverly Kelso and Elaine Wallet; Beverly Kelso's three daughters and their children; her sisters, Geneva Ray and Betty Higgins; and her brother Arthur Whitecotton.

Janet Chouinard lit a candle in honor of Juanita.

Praying for God's loving comfort to you during this hard time of loss. Juanita had such a sweet spirit about her. Remember the wonderful memories. Love her paintings that she enjoyed making. I'll always remember her love for "Cracker Barrel".
