Gilbert Epler Mannino

OCT 29, 1943 - DEC 22, 2016

Gilbert Epler Mannino, 73, passed away Thursday, December 22, 2016 at Tucson Medical Center following a brief illness.

He leaves his wife of 49 years, Susan Mannino, his daughter, Ginevra Mannino, his son, Greg Mannino, and his two grandchildren, Damon Mariscal and Brandon Mannino.

He was born on October 29, 1943 in Brooklyn New York son of Rosario Gilbert Mannino and Helen Epler Mannino.

After graduating from the University of Dayton in 1965 with a Bachelor of Arts degree he moved to Tucson Arizona to pursue his Master of Arts at the University of Arizona. This is where he met his wife to be, Susan. In 1967, Gilbert and Susan were married and moved to Lincoln, Nebraska where in 1971 their first child Ginevra was born. Longing for the beautiful sunsets in Tucson, they moved back. Their second child, Greg, was born in 1975. Gilbert worked as an Adult Probation officer in Pima County for 25 years when he retired in 1998. He found pleasure in activities such as travelling the world, eating and drinking with his family, getting into adventures with his grandson, gardening, reading, working as the Senior Warden for St. Andrew's Church for three years and brewing his own beer and wine in which he produced for the church for over seven years.

Very sorry to hear this. My condolences to his family. We were co-workers at the probation department for many years. He was a very nice man. Joanne Brown Christopher

There are so many memories it's too hard to pick one. All I know is you were one of the good ones. You made me feel like a daughter and treated my girls as if they were your grandchildren when you didn't have to. You brightened any room you walked into. Your wit, humor, and warmth is something I will never forget. You always put a smile on my face and made me laugh in my darkest days. I love and miss you so much. Until the day we meet again may you rest in peace. ❤️
