Margie Irene Shirley (Lee) born on May 26, 1959 to the parents Marjorie I. Brown and Roy E. Lee, SR in Pocomoke City, Maryland. She lived her childhood mostly in Kingsport Tennessee with her brothers and sisters, Randle Lee, Roy Lee, Wanda Greaney, Janie Brown, and Janet Sexton all of who she loved and adored very much. She moved to Arizona in 1978. There she met and married Rick Shirley and his two girls Laura Mosely and Sara Shirley on December 26, 1980. They added two more girls Jessica Shirley and Heather Huff and gained 2 sons Doug and Danny Reese. She spent 36 years in Tucson raising their girls. Together Margie and Rick had 8 grand kids , Jacob Shirley, Jemma Shirley, Kyle Wilcox, Jace Wilcox, Dylan Wilcox, Caiden McEarchern, Austin Huff and Madison Huff, all of which were her world! Margie also had numerous nieces and nephews and a God daughter Katie Rose, all of which she never forgot a birthday and loved dearly! Margie spent out her days loving her family and friends. She enjoyed her flowers, humming birds and the Arizona sun. Margie was greatly loved and will be missed by so many people who's lives she touched. Margie had a heart of gold and truly cared for everyone she met. Heaven got the best angel in the world on March 14, 2017. We love you mom and we are truly blessed to have a mother with such a big heart and raised us to be the people we are now. Love you more then fishes in the sea and all the stars in the sky! See you later alligator! Catch you on the flip flop! Behave!

I have known Margie for only 7 years and mostly through her grandchildrens birthday parties, but enough to know how many lives she has touched. She always made me feel so welcome and a part of the family. I have a feeling she was able to do that for everyone she met. I do know what an amazing Mother she was because I have had the privilege to know her daughters and they are both the most kind and giving women you could ever meet. Rick and Margie have such a loving family from their kids to their grandkids. You will forever be missed Margie. Much Love, The Eichenmillers
