MAY 18, 1964 - APR 10, 2018

The family extends a heartfelt thank you to Debbie Walker (his caregiver, neighbor and friend) who provided loving care and companionship for the last 10 years.

Danny was a brilliant, creative, witty and compassionate young man whose potential was barely tapped. Danny's life was not only what we saw and what we remember - it is what we feel and that will never be forgotten.

Rabbi Eisen will be officiating at a private service for family and close friends. Arrangements by EVERGREEN MORTUARY.

Nancy Mcdade, Clerked With Danny In 1987 posted:

I met Danny in the summer of 1987 when he bounced into the law library at Mesch, Clark & Rothschild in Tucson. Curt Cameron and I were dilligently working away as first year clerks. Danny brought us immediate sunshine and laughter. He said, "Boy, you guys need to lighten up!" I just recently came upon this obituary, or I would have posted sooner. But, I will always remember Danny with warmth and affection. What a great soul on Earth, no doubt still missed by many. With love, Nancy McDade.

Danny was one of the most kind, gentle and caring people and the world is a little sadder for his passing. He was a good and devoted friend and always had a joke to tell. I will miss you my friend.
