Gramma, Every time you cross my mind I do nothing but smile. If you were in a room, it was bursting with happiness and your positive energy. You always knew how to brighten someone's day and make them laugh. You always had the right words and never wished ill for anyone. You are the foundation of so many great people that thrive in our family. I am so grateful that you raised my aunt, my uncle, and my dad and taught them to be the people they are so they could spread love the way they do. I am so blessed to have experienced so many GREAT years with you and collect all the memories we have together. From drinking coffee at the table in Michigan learning my alphabet and counting to 100, yours from a coffee cup and mine from a bottle... to riding on your wheelchair to Circle K every morning to get milkshakes and Mountain Dew when I would visit you in the summer. You loved people in such a way that it set the bar for anyone "special" in my life. I knew that if they didn't love me like my grandma loved me, I didn't want to bother. I am so heart broken that you won't be here in person but I know you will be there in spirit the day I say 'I do'. You would have loved her, Gram. Just know that I am taken care of down here and I know I will be even better now because no one has a guardian angel quite like mine. ❤️ I love you so much.

Wanda was always special to me . During our teenage years where you saw one you saw the other. Wes was always part of the crowd too, along with Bob her older brother. Bob was our only transportation with that 55 Merc. He didn't mind at all taking us kids where we wanted to go whether it be to a dance at the armory or for a picnic at Frankenmuth. Yes , we had a good ol time back then in Flint , times that will be remembered for a long long time.R.I.P Wanda we all love you ..
