Lyrics
When I am down, and, oh, my soul, so weary When troubles come, and my heart burdened be Then, I am still and wait here in the silence Until you come and sit awhile with me
You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas
I am strong when I am on your shoulders
You raise me up to more than I can be
You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas
I am strong when I am on your shoulders You raise me up to more than I can be
You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas
I am strong when I am on your shoulders
You raise me up to more than I can be You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas
I am strong when I am on your
shoulders
You raise me up to more than I can be
You raise me up to more than I can be

Joan was a loving, gracious, welcoming hostess to many of us when we were young couples, meeting with her and Alex for Bible studies. She was a steadfast example and mentor to so many, while being a busy wife, mom, and step mom. We so look forward to meeting her and Alex again in eternity! Carol and Darryl Jakes

She was our spiritual mother! While her husband Alex did the teaching she was always providing the warm home environment where we felt loved and accepted. Her smile could melt the most hardened heart and her sweet, quiet voice was like music to the heart Glad she'll be one radiant face we'll recognize in Heaven.
