Jay Joseph Pisik

JUL 9, 1932 - AUG 17, 2021

Jay Joseph Pisik, 89, passed away August 17, 2021.

To all who knew him, Jay Pisik's passing is painfully sad.
To all who knew him, their lives were beautifully enhanced.

Jay was a fun, gregarious, generous, warm, and compassionate guy. A highly successful international executive in the pharmaceutical industry. He also had a multitude of friends – most for decades. He loved classical music and traveling the globe- always with his wife, and often with the rest of the family. He also periodically enjoyed a dram of scotch (of course strictly for medicinal purposes).

Jay Pisik lived in Tucson (by way of The Bronx, NJ, Chicago, Florida). He was 89. (July 9, 1932- August 17, 2021). He passed too young. He spent the past 67 years successfully keeping his wife, Barbara, nee Rubin happy (which kept him happy). He also was the proud father of Mitch Pisik (Bonnie), Tara Greenberg (Andy), and Doug Pisik (Ginger). He was the exceedingly proud grandfather of Benjamin Pisik (Jon), Joy Greenberg, Nathan Pisik (Samantha), and Matthew Greenberg.

The details of the memorial service to remember, revel, respect and celebrate Jay's life are:

When: Thursday, August 26, 9:00 AM.
Location: Evergreen Mortuary and Cemetery
Address: 3015 N. Oracle Road
Tucson, Arizona 85705
520-888-7470
He will also be presented with military honors.

I am the last surviving first cousin of Jay. As children, we did many things together. During the war my father was the only one with a car, and he took us to skate at the old Words Fair Grounds in Queens, swam in the city pool across the street from our apt. building, and a lot of picnics in Conn. Although we have not seen Jay in many years, I think of him often, and share the memories of our families getting together on many holidays.
