I was Nicks babysitter when he was about 5 years old. I had known his father's family for...well forever. He "forced" me to watch endless videos of "Thomas the Tank Engine", "Aladdin" & "Beauty and the Beast." All day- all the time. We'd laugh and sing ALL the songs. He thought it was funny making me watch them over & over & over. In fact it was a game we played together. Cartoon musicals singing with Nick. I wouldn't change anything about the time little Nick taught me every word to every song in "Beauty" & in "Aladdin". I am devastated to hear of his passing. I hope Megan & Remy somehow find peace, comfort, and healing in the years ahead. Blessings to all who loved him. Treasure his memory so a part of him will live on in us for many years to come. Blessed Be. And always in my thoughts-Elizabeth Huntington

I am so sorry for your loss. I was heartbroken when I heard about losing Nick. I considered Nick one of my boys when he would hang out with my son Andrew Elmer. As I would drive around town to go to work or the store or wherever I would go, I would always look around to see if I came across Nick. Now I know I don't have to look anymore as he is resting in peace. Almost a year has gone by since he left and I just found out today. Again I am so sorry. Nicolas was a very special young man. He will forever hold a special place in my heart
