Electra was such a beautiful person. She and I loved talking about San Carlos, Mexico. She would get so excited to reminisce about her time in Mexico. She was a gem. Rest in Peace, Electra. I'll think of you often when I'm in San Carlos!

Aunt Electra, Lecka, Lecka Panaya was everything a girl could want in an Aunt. She was spicy, sassy, had the warmest heart and always enjoyed a good laugh (which I absolutely loved making her do). I remember one summer my sister and I getting to stay with her when she lived in CT. She drove a silver Fiero and we all piled in and drove around. We slept in the same bed with loud neighbors upstairs that kept us up. So Aunt Lecka took a broomstick and bang it on the ceiling. We all had a good laugh, but we also had a good sleep that night. Love you lady, may you rest in peace and become the angel in heaven you have always been on Earth. XOXO. - Liberty
