Tim Brownlee posted:

We shared many adventures and sometimes got into a little mischief back in 1959 and 1960 when I spent the summers at my Dad's house in Lantana. I remember most of them. And the house on Ortega Rd, no A/C back then, but your family had plenty of fans! Then when you were in the Navy serving in Washinton DC you came to our house in NJ almost every weekend; many more good times. Going to the Worlds Fair in NY back in 1964 in your VW bus was just one adventure of the many. When you and Carolyn came to our house for a visit a few years back we all had some good laughs reminiscing about the wild and crazy things we did together. I don't regret any of them; they will all be memories of our youth forever, memories of my best friend. I guess it's okay for cousins to say I love you and it goes without saying we all will miss you. Rest in Peace our good friend, With Love, Sue and Tim
