Ah, Dad. I'm not sure how to do this. It doesn't feel right to live in a world where I can't call you to talk about my crazy gardening ideas, or describe the noise my car is making, or ask a geography or history question. You were the compass of our family and now we're lost. Thanks for all the adventures when we were kids and all the love our whole lives. I love you and I'll never stop missing you, Dad.

Dwayne, my veteran brother, friend, primo. I will always remember when you took me to your photo lab at the Sheriff's station on Mission. Knowing I was into photography, you helped me develop some photos in your forensic lab. Your love for cousin Sylvia and family will always be one of my fondest memories. RIP ,Frankie Jacobo Rios, Ca.
