This beautiful lady took me under her wing in Logan, WV. She taught me to swim and so much more. She gave me confidence to be me. After we moved to South Bend IN, she came to see us a couple of times. She was beautiful, inside and out. Rest in heaven sweet lady...I hope to see you again some day.

My sincerest condolences to Mary Margaret's family and friends. I am so saddened that I found out recently of her passing. I missed at service at our parish. I had the great pleasure of teaching with MaryMargaret at Tully Magnet School. We both taught fourth grade and chatted almost every morning before the morning bell rang. A truly delightful woman. May she Rest in Perpetual Peace. Prayers for her family and friends.
