I was lucky enough to know him. Every time I saw him, I felt a calmness and sense of acceptance that's hard to put into words. He had been fighting for as long as I've known him, yet he never seemed afraid of the diagnosis he was given. He pushed past obstacles and lived far longer than anyone expected, all with quiet strength. Bless him.No matter how he was feeling inside, he always carried a smile—one that showed both resilience and love. He was the kind of person who could make you feel cared for, even if you weren't his own child. His presence was a gift, and his kindness left a mark on everyone who knew him. He will be deeply missed, but he will always be remembered with love.

I'll never forget your welcoming nature when I was new in town, and your humour and smile whenever I had the privilege of running into you at random places. You are one of the good ones Mikey, and ill miss you dearly.

Michael.....My heart is broken hearing the loss of you. You weren't just my cousin, you were the brother I never had. So many exciting childhood memories Krissy and I had with you. A guy with such a creative mind to make life a fun adventure. Someone who was full of energy, love and laughter. I will always remember you by family reunions and let's ditch, creator of flash light tag in the desert darkness, creator of the backhoe competition at the Rental, creator of hide and seek on the Rental rooftop, the chauffeur of the red Cadi aka party mobile, founder of the road trippin to "The Thing" to see what it was really about, owner of the El Camino that raced on the end of Alvernon Way to move up to the challenge to BFE Houghton Road, the founder of the famous Las Margs meeting spot, the champion of driving backwards in Wienerschnitzel drive thru to place and order but most of all, the master planner of the scavenger hunts driving all over Tucson to win the famous "Reflector". Rest with angels Michael as I am comforted by knowing I was blessed with so many memories from you that I'll have forever. Until we meet again, Jeanna.PS....this is the last photo I had taken of you. One "Sharp Dressed Man". ❤️🎵❤️
