Angela Mae Allain

AUG 8, 1942 - OCT 25, 2025

In Loving Memory of Angela Mae Allain August 8, 1942 – October 25, 2025

Angela Mae Allain, 83, of Revere, Massachusetts, passed away peacefully on October 25, 2025. Born in Boston on August 8, 1942, Angela was the daughter of the late Angelina Mae Capo and Rosario U. Ledoux. She spent her life surrounded by family, friends, and the love of her community.

Angela was the proud mother of four children: Lisa Brien, Laurie Del Giudice and Michael Denning of Arizona and Lynne Denning-Keenan and Chuck of Tyngsboro, MA. She was also a beloved grandmother and great-grandmother to many, all of whom brought her endless joy and pride.

Angela was predeceased by her sister Joanne Rita Cook and her brother Arthur Ledoux and is survived by her sisters Rhondda A. Kahler of Oro Valley, AZ, and Rosanna and Dennis Dubina of Florida. Angela and her sister Rhondda shared an especially close bond — one filled with pure love, laughter, craziness, and just the right amount of mischief.

Following in her mother's footsteps, Angela began her career as a talented hairdresser before later working as a merchandiser for American Greeting Cards for many years. Her creativity and attention to detail shone through in everything she did, from her work to her many hobbies. Angela loved sewing, baking, reading, and the occasional trip to the casino. She had a warm and friendly personality and loved being around people — and people loved being around her.

Her lively spirit and joyful presence brightened every room, bringing laughter, kindness, and happiness wherever she went. Above all, she cherished time spent with her family and loved ones, creating memories that will be treasured forever.

Her family and friends will forever cherish the memories they shared with her and the love she gave so freely.

In keeping with Angela's wishes, there will be no public celebration of life. Instead, her family will honor her memory together in their own special way — gathering as a family and, in true Angela fashion, possibly visiting the casino she so enjoyed.

Angela will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all who knew her. Her laughter, warmth, and love will remain with us always.
