Damn! We've had some good times brother! You was my ride or die bro since 2008 when we met while I was working at Circle K. I can't believe we won't be able to go get some Whataburger anymore or any other food places we would go to get food at. Damn, we always had a good time when chilling together. I am sure you're up there clowning with everyone for sure. Those who left this journey of life before you like all your family members and friends. Plus my family who got to meet you as well brother. Keep watching over all of us down here especially your legacy holders and siblings. You will always be in my heart and mind brother! Stay Golden in all the hearts you touched brother. For we will ride again one day JDog clowning and laughing and enjoying a feast brother.
