Patricia Ann Martinez

MAY 7, 1957 - FEB 19, 2026

It is with profound sadness and broken hearts, that we announce the transition of Patricia Ann Martinez (aka Patsi Osollo), 68 of Tucson, AZ.

Patsi will always be remembered for her kind and loving heart, giving ways, and faith in Jesus Christ. Like her mother, her love and devotion to Christ is a wonderful legacy she shared with her family. From her daughter to her great grandchildren.

Patsi was born in Fort Benning, GA. As a military child, Patsi got to experience life in many places: Kentucky, Berlin Germany, California, Washington, Oklahoma, and finally settling in Arizona.

Patsi was the oldest of four children. She often would describe herself as the shy and quiet sibling. It was a family joke that Patsi was the 'cry baby' and most sensitive of the bunch. She had a big, open heart and wore it on her sleeve.

Patsi had retired from the University of Arizona where she worked with payroll. She then went to work at Lincare where she met her amazing friend, Misty. They developed a family love that will transcend time and space. That special relationship also extends to her friend Kelli. The relationship with these two women meant the world to Patsi and she and her family will forever be grateful for them and the love they had for her.

Patsi enjoyed spending time with her family (especially her Great Grandbabies: Aaiden, Elijah, Evieanna, and Riko). Family to her didn't only include her blood family but extended to her church family as well. Patsi loved being part of her worshiping communities. She once held the role of prayer intercessor for Cleansing Stream, would attend the women's Monday night Bible study, and traveled with her sisters in Christ as part of the Joyce Meyer Ministries.

Patsi is survived by her husband Manuel 'Junior' Martinez, daughter Elizabeth (Mike) Sierra, bonus kids Nick Velasquez and Clarissa Martinez, her grandkids: Brittany, Kyle, Alex, Akias, and Calliope, her father Eduardo Osollo, sisters: Debbie (Danny) Gutierrez, AnnMarie 'Deta' (Tim) Davis, and brother Eddie Osollo. She will also be missed by many nieces, nephews, cousins, and

Sister, I will cherish the lifetime of memories with you. Here are two of my favorites. I will always remember how big your eye were and the look on your face when Debbie and I said you were going first when we got our tattoos. We didn't want you to chicken out. lol and look, you did so good, we were able to talk you into it twice. ❤️ The other is your laugh during our sister pedicure dates. How you were nearly brought to tears because you were so ticklish. You could never sit still or talk then they would massage your feet. 🤗 Sister bond forever. I will love you and miss you always. 🍷

Patsi was my children step mom and my dear friend. She went above and beyond for us. I will never forget the memories we shared together and all of the ones we made through the years. Our long over the phone conversations were always so meaningful. I love her always.
