

Clair Wayne Parker

February 27, 1932 - November 3, 2016

CLAIR WAYNE PARKER

(February 27, 1932 – November 3, 2016)

Tucson Arizona — Clair Wayne Parker, 84, died Thursday, November 3, 2016 at his home.

Born and raised in Nunda New York, the son of Wayne T and Hazel May (Bailey) Parker, he was a longtime resident of New York. He served in the Air Force and was stationed at the Sampson Air Force Base in Geneva, New York during the early 50's. During this time, Clair was married to Helen Bartholomew (now deceased) and in 1967 they had a daughter, Maryanna.

Clair was a jack of all trades working to support himself from the early age of 12. His work skills varied from farm work, construction, mechanic work, to working in the vineyards of New York upon retiring.

After meeting his life partner Barbara, they moved to Arizona in 2005. There they enjoyed their retirement in San Manuel surrounded by close family. They then moved to Tucson in 2012 to be closer to medical facilities.

Clair is survived by his Life Partner, Barbara Ordway of Tucson and Daughter, Maryanne Parker of New York. Step Daughter, Shirley Duran (James Allen), Step Sons, Roger (Karen) Quenan and Robert (Sherry) Quenan of Tucson, and many Grandchildren and Great-Grandchildren. He is also survived by a Sister (Florida) and a twin Brother (location unknown).

Clair was a one of a kind. He spent his last years taking such good care of Barbara who had been facing many medical issues. He was a quiet but very loving man. He will truly be missed.

Comments

“ Love and miss you Clair. It's hard to believe that you are gone. Seems it was just the other day we were sitting there and you were telling me all about a farm you worked on from a picture that you recently found. The smile on your face that day was impeccable. Keep smiling dear Clair and rest in peace.

Karen Quenan - November 22, 2016 at 09:32 PM

“ Love and miss you Clair. I really can't believe you are gone. Seemed it was just the other day you were telling me all about the farm you worked on in the picture you recently found. The smile on your face that day was impeccable. Keep smiling dear Clair and rest in peace.

Karen Quenan - November 22, 2016 at 09:24 PM

“ My heart still hurts and misses you so very much my Parker!! I thank God for bringing you into our lives and for loving Grandma as much as you did!! I will forever hold our funny memories in my heart and thoughts!! Until we meet again my Parker, We all love and miss you very much!! Fly with the Angels my Parker!!
Love Always your granddaughter, and great grandchildren- Christina, Lexi, Izayah & Our family
P.S. You be good boy Clair (From Shirley)

Christina Medina Valenzuela - November 20, 2016 at 02:20 PM