August 1, 1986 - June 8, 2019

Our beloved daughter, mother, sister, niece, cousin and dearly loved friend to many, Debréah Marie Gonzales departed this world much too early at 32, on June 8, 2019. A life time resident of Tucson, AZ Bréa was born on Aug 1, 1986 to Edward and Debra (Canett) Gonzales at Tucson Medical Center. Bréa was a licensed beautician and also loved to cut, color and shape her family's hair.

Bréa was blessed with a charismatic loving personality filled with joy and humor. She was a head turner and she lit up the room wherever she went with her beautiful smile, fun personality and was always a big ball of fun. She loved being a mentor to her nephews & niece. She was also blessed with an artistic & creative mind and loved to decorate and help with school projects for her niece. Bréa was a music lover of all genres. Music was always on her phone when she was doing chores, putting on her makeup or driving in a car. She was fascinated with forensic, mystery & cooking shows.

Bréa was mother to little Oliver Billingsly who brought her the greatest joy of her life. Even though their time together was cut short, the time spent together was equal to a lifetime. Her love for Ollie was immeasurable and the kind that only a mother knows. She loved to sing to him and clap her hands when he danced. She made it a point of surrounding Ollie with children's music and gave him many musical instruments to try out and sing and dance with. She loved bathing him and dressing him for special events in the most adorable clothes in her favorite styles.

Bréa was preceded in death by her paternal Grandparents Raymond & Luz Gonzales and maternal Grandparents Eduardo & Teresa Canett. She is survived by her beautiful son Oliver Daniel, her loving parents Edward and Debra, Sisters Georgia & Felicia (Anthony Molina), Brother Raymond (Alexia) partner Cody Billingsly, Niece Anya Membrila and Nephews Isaiah Membrila, Elijah Diaz, Josiah Molina, Noah Molina & Jedidiah Molina. She also leaves many Uncles, Aunts, cousins and friends. Bréa's stubborn, yet loving, caring, nurturing and humorous personality will be immensely missed by all who knew and loved her.

A celebration of her life followed by a graveside service immediately after will be held at Evergreen Mortuary, 3015 N Oracle Rd, Tucson AZ 85705 on June 18th commencing at 10AM

“ To my precious daughter Brea, words cannot begin to express how wonderful you made me feel and how the hurt I feel is equally indescribable. I will think of you each minute of each day until I can hold you in my arms again. You were such an incredibly charismatic and gifted soul with so many loves and interests that drove your inquisitiveness. I am thankful for the time we spent together you and I and all of the things we would share and enjoy. I love you so much and don't know how your mother and I will carry on but we must for our children and grand-children.

Rest in Peace my precious one for the hurt, pain and sorrow you felt here has been lifted from you by our Lord and savior, Jesus Christ.

“ Dear Brea

You taught me so much. You gave me warmth so that my heart can create its own. I will forever miss you and beautiful presence. It is not fair that you have to go but it appears it was your time. You taught me how to be compassionate, caring, and loving. It will take me a lifetime to even approach your inner-beauty; and a several lifetimes to compare to your outer beauty. I will miss you every single day and continue to think of you every single day. I will miss my big sister picking on me while giving me her beauty advice and relationship advice. You were the best big sister a brother could ever have.

Love,

Little brotha

“ Breah, you were such an amazing soul inside and out. The day you walked in for the first day on the job at Ross, all bright eyes and bushy tailed ready for the day is a day I'll always remember especially with all your random meowing throughout the day. It was also the day we all became friends and began to do everything together. From going to the river, to always being at Gwen's house with all the pups just hanging out and listening to music. From the time you told me you were pregnant with baby Rex and keeping me updated every step of the way; and you being so excited. You really did light up the room whenever you walked in and made sure no one was ever left out. Thank you for all the wonderful memories we created together and honestly not even just with me, my little brothers too. Even before baby Rex, you were just so good with children and always said you always wanted to be a mom. You were such a kind and such a loving soul and did everything with such a passion. I wish you could have met my girlfriend because you guys would've been such great friends. I'm sorry we never continued to hangout after I left Ross and I'm so sorry I never got the chance to meet baby Rex. Please keep shining from heaven like you did here on earth. Please continue to play your two favorite songs when they came out and sing them at the top of your lungs as you did before and most importantly; please stay close. Until next time Bréah Bee because I will never say goodbye to such an amazing friend and to such a beautiful soul 🐾

“ To My Tia,

I can't explain how much pain I am in without you here. I wish I could hold you one more time and tell you how much you mean to me. My heart aches while writing this because I still can't believe this is real. Nothing will ever be the same without you here. Nana says God does things for a reason even though it is painful that he took you from us, he took you to a better place and we will see you again. When that day happens I will give you the biggest hug like how you would do. You were an amazing person Tia. You were a second mother to me you were always there when I needed you and you will always be in my heart. I'm going to miss your kisses, your evil laugh, and most of all I'm going to miss you. My life will never be the same. Cheese and crackers you use to say which is so dorky but made everyone in the room smile and laugh. I will be the best cousin I can be for Chino and tell him what a beautiful person his mom was. I love you so much. Forever in my heart.

“ Dearest Brea,

I cannot say enough how much I love you. How much I will miss you. I feel like every memory I have of us as little girls through adulthood is playing like a movie in my mind. One of my fondest memories of us is from freshman year. Even if one of us didn't see the other in the hallway, we heard each other say, "I love you Debreah Marie!" Or "I love you Vanessa Marie!" I never knew how much it would mean to me all these years later. I cannot bring myself to say good bye, so just like the night that you passed on to your new adventure, I will say, "I love you Debreah Marie!" Rest now my beautiful, gracious, loving cousin.

“ My Baby Bee,

I consider myself lucky that our paths crossed and our lives entwined, even if for a short while. I do not regret a minute of the time we spent together, I only wish I would have given you more and found a way to make you stay.

To say that you will be missed does not portray how much you mean to Oliver and I. You filled our lives so much joy...and gave me such immense headaches. Despite the times that were hard, I would not change a thing, because nothing in this life is worthwhile if it is easy.

No mother loved a son more than the way you loved Oliver. I promise you that he will grow up knowing how beautiful, warm, and loving his mother was, and how much she adored and loved him.

I truly hope you hear me when I quibble with you for leaving us too soon, and when I ask for advice about our son. Please stay close and help me guide him through life.

I love you and I hate losing you, because my life was better the day I found you. You are and always will be my better half.

I will not say goodbye, I'll just say, until I find you again.

Kahlil Gibran on Love

When love beckons to you, follow him,
Though his ways are hard and steep.
And when his wings enfold you yield to him,
Though the sword hidden among his pinions may wound you.
And when he speaks to you believe in him,
Though his voice may shatter your dreams
as the north wind lays waste the garden.

For even as love crowns you so shall he crucify you. Even as he is for your growth so is he for your pruning.
Even as he ascends to your height and caresses your tenderest branches that quiver in the sun,
So shall he descend to your roots and shake them in their clinging to the earth.

Like sheaves of corn he gathers you unto himself.
He threshes you to make you defenseless.
He sifts you to free you from your husks.
He grinds you to whiteness.
He kneads you until you are pliant;
And then he assigns you to his sacred fire, that you may become sacred bread for God's sacred feast.

All these things shall love do unto you that you may know the secrets of your heart, and in that knowledge become a fragment of Life's heart.

But if in your fear you would seek only love's peace and love's pleasure,
Then it is better for you that you cover your bareness and pass out of love's threshing-floor,
Into the seasonless world where you shall laugh, but not all of your laughter, and weep, but not all of your tears.
Love gives naught but itself and takes naught but from itself.
Love possesses not nor would it be possessed;
For love is sufficient unto love.

When you love you should not say, "God is in my heart," but rather, "I am in the heart of God."
And think not you can direct the course of love, for love, if it finds you worthy, directs your course.

Love has no other desire but to fulfill itself.
But if you love and must needs have desires, let these be your desires:
To melt and be like a running brook that sings its melody to the night.
To know the pain of too much tenderness.
To be wounded by your own understanding of love;
And to bleed willingly and joyfully.
To wake at dawn with a winged heart and give thanks for another day of loving;
To rest at the noon hour and meditate love's ecstasy;
To return home at eventide with gratitude;
And then to sleep with a prayer for the beloved in your heart and a song of praise upon your lips.

“ Debreah you were the spark in so many lives that lite up a room just by you walking into it. Your beautiful natural personality and genuine love of everything and everyone that was infectious to all of us who knew and loved you beyond measure. My sweet loving beautiful darling niece my heart is broken and there's a hole in my heart that will never be filled. I pray for just one more moment to tell how much I love you. But you left us with a little spark of you in your loveable son Ollie who will carry on your memory for all of us who loved you. My sweet darling niece you can rest in peace now and be a Angle for Ollie and the rest us who can't see the light but through you we will have hope. Untill we meet again in GODS light.

“ My dear, beautiful, amazing sister... I cannot even begin to describe the feeling I have of this enormous loss. You were everything to me, more than my sister, you were my best friend. You were incredible in so many ways, and had many talents and hobbies. We shared everything together. Every memory I have of my life includes you in it. Whether it's from us fighting about the silliest things like taking my clothes, or my pens (I really hated that). Or if its from us spending EVERY DAY at the pool together. Riding our bikes around the neighborhood, skating on our front porch, playing on the swing set. To us growing up... Everything I did in my life, I did with you. I don't know how I will ever move on from this. I love you tremendously, and am thankful you are no longer hurting or suffering. The boys and I will miss you forever. Rest my beautiful Star. I love you! I'll be seeing you!

“ My beautiful baby cousin Breah. I can't begin to tell you how much we will all miss you so much. I know my mama and your grandparents were there to greet you in their loving arms. I always knew when Brea arrived by looking at all our babies faces and seeing your lipstick kisses on their cheeks You taught me how to do my eyebrows, gave me my first highlight in my hair. I remember swimming at the trailer all day pretending to be mermaids with Me, You, Licia and Nene. Playing at the playground getting into fights protecting you and Nene from the mean girls hahaha. You me and Licia driving up and down mission Rd, A mountain and Kennedy Park watching the sunsets. I remember your dad always scolding us to drive slow and be careful with his baby girls in our hooptie. I remember how much you loved my children as They were yours as you did your nieces and nephews. My "ButterCup" girl, Girls just a wanna have fun and Lucy in the Sky with Diamonds! I will never forget the night we ran away together the nights and days you stayed with me and Licia in Blue Moon. I miss you and I love you my little sister/cousin.
