“ My dear Aunt Edie, always making me feel so good about whatever I shared with her, of course after she asked all the right questions making me want to share with her, as a teenager, a young wife, and especially as a young mother. And throughout my adult life she maintained a marked interest in what I was doing, how I felt about it, and how and what my children were doing and feeling. Aunt Edie always said something very positive and reassuring to me, making me feel like I was doing something right. How lucky we all were to have a smart loving aunt like her and a wonderfully loving uncle so much a part of our lives! And they always will be!

“ Cindi....Ling ago and far away in a little town called Dresher, I can still vividly remember your house where I spent many fun times with you and your family. I can still remember something your mom said to us when we were giggly teenagers. She said “you both have a lot of growing up to do.” And that has stuck with me all these years .Even though I didn't t see your mom out here in Tucson, I knew how much you loved her from all the great stories you told me about her. You and she had a special bond, and I know you will be sad and missing her , but you were there for her right up to the end, and somewhere, if there's a heaven , she's blowing kisses down to you. Prayers and love to you and your family.

“ Dear Cindy, David, Rachel and Paul,
It seems like yesterday that we found your family after Yousi came to America. O remember all the tones we visited and we all sieve time together abs Shasta stayed at your Mom and Dads. Debbie was part of the group. Your Mom was the hostess of the mostess as the saying goes. Then cane the summer in the country and all the phone we all had together. Your Mom and Dad put on plays abs I remember Anne making us feel at home too. What great times. It truly feels like yesterday. Your Mom was always gracious abs welcoming. We so looked forward to the visits. We were so lucky to find the Yousi's missing relatives. There is so much mire I can write of his much fun we had abs we can't separate your Mom and Dad...they were a team. Then came Gary abs Darren. Two more did not make a difference. We just doubled up. Oh what wonderful years they were.

Your Mom was lucky to have such great kids abs grandkids. She lived to a ripe old age and had a wonderful life.

Sorry we can't be there

Love, kisses and hugs

Irene and Yousi
