“ Jerry has been my friend for at least 19 years. We played music together, prayed and had many laughs and tears. A real good kind and generous person. I'll miss him greatly , but will always remember and try to use his kindness to others. God Bless you Jerry. Andy Lee

“ Jerry will be so missed....when his beautiful wife Marilyn and him sang and Jerry played guitar, you could feel the anointing of the Lord....what a testimony their lives displayed...Jerry always had a beautiful smile and had a way of brightening anyone's day...God bless his wife and we know that Jerry is in Heaven rejoicing in and with the Lord.

“ Dear Family, I will always hear my beautiful brother's voice as he answered the phone, "Hello Sis, how are you?" with nothing but smiles in his voice. I will always remember the first time we met over the phone, and I will always cherish the first time we met in person. We could talk about the wonders of God, and what a miracle it was that after 68 years we were united as siblings. We were each other's connection to our mother and our biological roots. I will miss him terribly, I already do. My love and prayers to each of you. Jerry's little sis, Michele.
