“ Dolly, you were so lovely. I do not remember a time when I didn't know you. I used to stare at you when I was little, because I thought you were so pretty. Thank you for gracing my family with your presence. We will see you again. Love, one of your other "kids," -Shelia

“ Dolly, my other mother, I can't describe how much I miss you. I know you're in Heaven and I'll see you again some sweet day. There's just so many memories for me to choose just one. My entire childhood has you all wrapped up in my daily life and I just can't realize that you're really gone. I love you so much.

“ I will never forget you, Dolly. You were a strong, intelligent woman who loved God. You were hospitable, even to strangers. You introduced "Irish Creme" Coffee Creamer to me. You told me Nothing felt so good as falling to sleep speaking in tongues. I know Heaven is brighter with you there now. You are with the Lord, Your Son, and all the Saints who have gone before. I Loved you and will always miss you. Until We Meet Again. Your Forever Friend, Patricia (Pat)
