

LeRoy Vance Day

August 4, 1933 - April 1, 2021

LeRoy Vance Day, age 87, went home to be with the Lord early Thursday morning, April 1st, 2021. LeRoy was born in Beallsville, Pennsylvania. His father, Walter Day, moved the family out west eventually settling in Tucson, Arizona, where he drove Greyhound Bus routes across the western United States. Grace Day, LeRoy's mother, took care of the rest of the family needs as a home maker.

LeRoy graduated from Tucson High School in 1953 and served two years active duty in the Army during the Korean War. He also completed four years in the Army Reserves. LeRoy worked a variety of jobs in the industrial and mechanical sector, including positions at Hughes Aircraft Company in Arizona and Coast Industrial Company in California. LeRoy enjoyed going to the beach, bowling, cars, food (especially lobster and peanut brittle) and feeding the birds. LeRoy was preceded in death by his parents Walter and Grace Day (Ross) and his brother Floyd.

LeRoy will be deeply missed by his dear friends Joe and Christina Hoscheidt. A special thank you to Ben Silverman and all the caregivers at Starfish Care Homes for providing the utmost care for LeRoy. If anyone wishes to honor the memory of LeRoy, please send charitable donations to the Tucson Audubon Society, 300 E. University Blvd, #120, Tucson, AZ, 85705.

Comments

“ Hope Kelley lit a candle in memory of LeRoy Vance Day

Hope Kelley - April 05 at 04:03 PM

“ Much Respect Mr. Leroy!
It was an honor to meet you & care for you.
Mr. Leroy: Thank you, I Love you! (Smiles gently)
Me: Your welcome, Mr. Leroy. I Love you too!
You never know what people have gone through in life, but God does, and he knows just where to place his people.
H. Kelley

Hope Kelley - April 05 at 04:00 PM

“ My greatest memory will be our friendship. LeRoy definitely knew how to make you feel special. He always reassured us that the care provided was the upmost best and how we always did it with deep affection. I'll now look at the stars and in hopes one of them will remind me of your sparkling blue eyes. Loved and never forgotten, rest at peace. Mileena N.

Mileena Namoki - April 05 at 02:48 PM