

Manya Tepelboym

December 31, 1928 - April 6, 2020

Manya Tepelboym, a Holocaust survivor, was born in Ukraine on December 31, 1928. She passed away on April 06, 2020. Mrs. Tepelboym was born in Proskurov and was 12 years old when World War II started. She survived and after the war went on to become an accountant for the City of Starokonstantinov where she met her beloved husband Grisha. In 1992 she moved with her family to Tucson as a refugee. Her life story was documented in the book "History of people who survived Holocaust and living now in Southern Arizona". She is survived by her son Ilya, daughter-in-law Luda, her granddaughter Gelya, and her daughter's-in-law mom Mariya Rytslina.
