

Marjorie Diaz Collette

September 26, 1944 - September 13, 2020

Marjorie 'Margie' Diaz Collette, age 75, passed away peacefully in her home in Marana, Arizona on Sunday, September 13th, 2020.

Margie is survived by her loving husband, Edward Joseph Collette, her children Randy (Berta) Salcido, Deneen (Noel) Rocha, Elizabeth Craig, Jackie (Ramon) Talamantes, Ray (Melissa) Rocha, Kristy Collette, 20 grandchildren, 36 great-grandchildren, 2 great-great grandchildren, four siblings, Betty (Trino) Castanon, Conrad Lopez, Linda Arnette, and Yolando Rivera. She is preceded in death by her mother, Juaquina, father, Ben, daughter, Buffy Manago, and two grandsons, Michael Tarango and Adam Hughes.

Margie was a vibrant, charismatic being, with so much love for life. Her energy was endless, and her sparkling personality was infectious. She had a smile that could brighten the day. She had a passion for the outdoors and adventure. She could take a troubled piece of land and make it paradise. She was a woman of hard work and instilled that in all of us. Margie loved her family and grandchildren.

Margie's loved to sew and create. She ran an upholstery and seamstress business, creating keepsakes for her family and friends. Margie had a massive stroke on November 12, 2002. This stroke altered her life, but not her will or personality. From then, until the time of her passing, her husband, Edward, loved her and tended to her every need and condition.

Margie was surrounded by family and loved ones during her passing.

Revelation 21:4 "He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, no crying, nor pain anymore. For the former things have all passed away."

She will be truly missed.

Comments

“ My beautiful mom, raised me the best she could. Never had alot but always had enough or she found a way. I love u mom and will miss u as long as i have breath! I will see u again mom!

Ray Rocha - October 01, 2020 at 02:21 PM

“ I have so many memories as a young girl being at Margie's house. She was always welcoming. May she Rest In Peace. Love to all my AZ family, Vanessa

Vanessa Gilmore (Rivera) - September 29, 2020 at 06:41 PM

“ She is my mama..and i will forever miss evety bit of her!!! Rest easy mama bear

Jackie talamantes - September 28, 2020 at 12:51 PM