

Roger Renaldo Ingram Jr.

January 20, 1985 - January 17, 2019

I need you to touch,
I need you to see,
I need you so much,
I need you with me.

My life feels so empty,
My heart feels so cold.
I need you beside me,
I need you to hold.

Why were you taken?
I ask that each day,
But no one will answer,
I therefore now pray.

I pray that you're happy,
I pray that you're safe,
I pray that I'll hear you,
And that I have faith.

That's all I have now
I have to believe
In life beyond this one,
We all must achieve.

Come to me, Roger,
And whisper my name.
Tell me you're happy,
and I'll be the same.

My life at the moment
Is empty and dark.
The light that once shone
Has gone out in my heart

“ I knew Roger from Guilford High School. I didn't know him well, but I knew him well enough to know that he had a wonderful sense of humor and the friendliest disposition of anyone. He never knew a stranger and for that, I'm sure, he will be dearly missed. I don't have many memories of Roger to share, but the ones I remember always include a big smile and hearty laughter. Even after these many years, I can clearly recall the sound of his laugh. It was memorable and something I hope to never forget.

I'm sorry to hear the news of his passing. But hopefully there is some consolation in knowing that his affect on people was far and wide, even if it was brief.

Best,
