This world was simply not big enough to contain you.

Pain has become my companion.

Where rest does not come easy.

Your smile, laugh, willingness to just listen. That quiet storm. That sense of Peace was all an electric force that somehow left an impression on everyone you'd come in contact with. Where there is peace there is heaven. Beat to your own drum and dancing along the stars traveling the world with no pain, no worries.

One great writer said 'The times when you have seen only one set of footprints, my child, is when I carried you.'

We find comfort in knowing He's walking with you.

Come, and let us return unto the Lord: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

Hosea 6:1-3

“ Oh my goodness, Will. I will forever remember you helping our Kinder and First graders! Such a gentle young man, quick with a charming smile, and the sweet voice of encouragement. Thank you for your willingness to help, and the sense of humor to understand how complicated they can be. How fun it's been to be friends on FB as adults
You are fondly remembered. Love, Erin Lee
